SUPPORT ALBERTA'S 2013 FLOOD REBUILDING THIS CHRISTMAS SEASON

Award winning painting "Winter Fox Trot" by Wendy Palmer won Duck's Unlimited 2010 Alberta Artist of the Year. Artist Proof (AP) reproductions became available in 2011, and only 50 are remaining. Wendy Palmer is donating all 50 remaining prints to raise funds for the 2013 flood victims of Alberta. Wendy Palmer was born and raised in Alberta, and knows the hearts of Canadian's are huge when it comes to helping others, and your generous donation will receive one of the limited edition prints. Retail value of "Winter Fox Trot" is $200.00, however, please donate from your heart and 100% of your donation will go directly to the Alberta Flood victims. Cheque donations or online donations* can be made to either of the following agencies and prints will be available to be picked up at the Tumbleweed Coffee House in Nanton, Alberta:

- 1) The Calgary Foundation (in memo area indicate "Flood Rebuilding Fund") this foundation supports Calgary and surrounding areas affected by the 2013 Flood <https://payment.csfm.com/donations/calgaryfoundation/flood.php>
- 2) Town of High River Disaster Relief Fund www.highriver.ca

* Online donations must email a copy of the receipt (dated Dec. 6, 2013 or later) to Tumbleweed Coffee House at tumbleweedcoffee@gmail.com Once the receipt is received a "Winter Fox Trot" AP repro will be assigned to the donor.
